1 Lomond Avenue KENSINGTON PARK SA

This property is nothing but the best in quality craftsmanship and a home that all buyers will love.

The home itself is currently disposed of as an entrance area that leads to a formal dining room, living room and study or third bedroom. Adjacent to this and also opening from the hallway is an exciting lifestyle featuring a wonderful kitchen with nothing but the best in fixtures and fittings opening out to an excellent outdoor living area.

One of the features of the lower level living area is the staircase, indoor fountain and the access by bi-fold doors to outdoor undercover living area.

Also on the lower level is the power room and separate laundry.
