

3/120 Cross Road HIGHGATE SA

3 1 1

This townhouse style property is more like a small home. It has features that will be sought after by many buyers. Built of solid brick and includes very generous living and bedroom areas.

The home itself is currently disposed as an entrance area that leads to a separate sitting room further through to a separate dining room and through to a well appointed and well maintained kitchen.

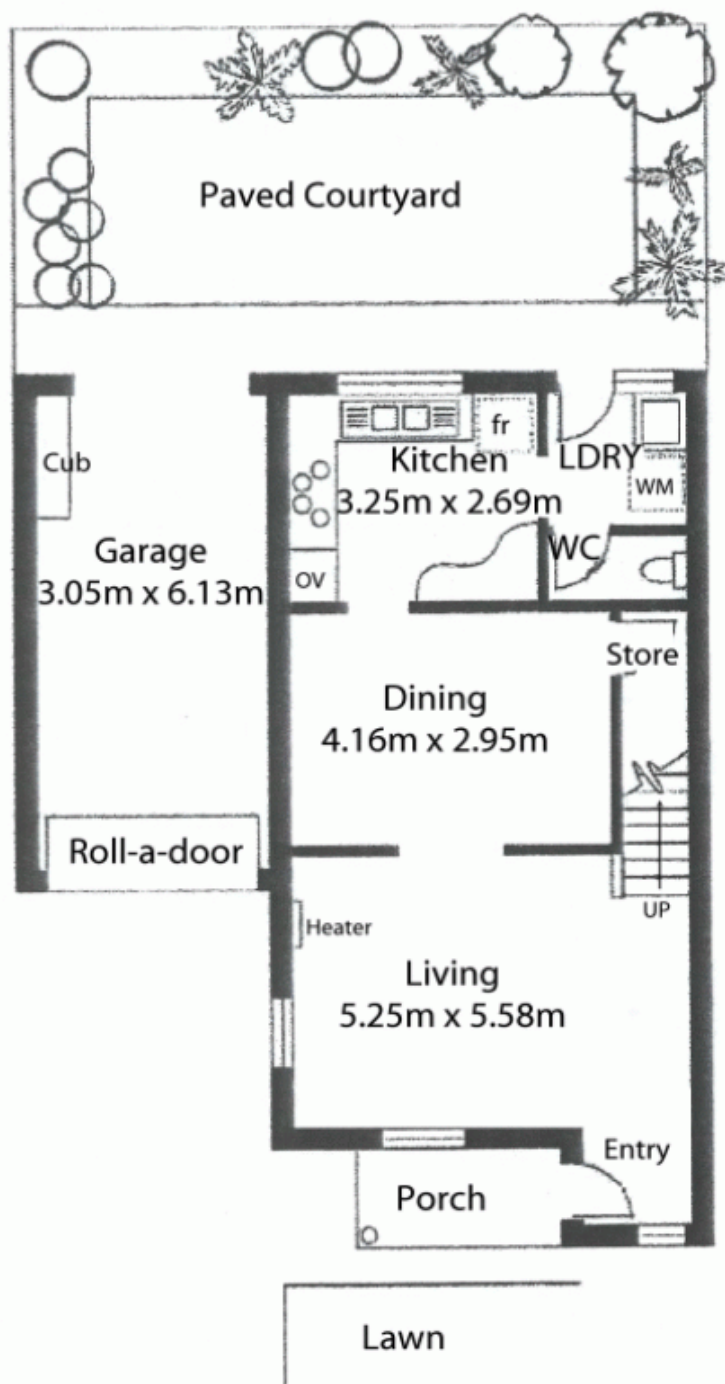

On the lower level there is a laundry and second w.c. On the upper level there are three very generous bedrooms all with built-ins, together with an extremely large bathroom facility.

The property includes many features such as a paved garden area to the rear and a lock-up garage facility
