Wow! What a great opportunity for buyers looking for a large family home in a peaceful & tranquil spot, at the end of a cul'de' sac. This really is a unique home in a wonderful location.

A great flow of rooms for entertaining, the home features a formal lounge and formal dining room complimented by a lovely outlook over the front garden setting. Adjacent is the generous central kitchen including a lot of storage and bench space, a lovely picture window leading through to the everyday meals area which includes a small living area that could be used as a 2nd study, media room or even library. This kitchen/ living area opens out to the generous
