Excellent views over a tranquil setting makes this is a great lifestyle for many buyers seeking to acquire an excellent home in close proximity to the city centre, yet a feeling of living in the countryside.

This is a rare find in the marketplace and many buyers will be keen to acquire it as it offers the accommodation that families love.

The home includes an entrance area that leads to a very desirable and extremely generous living and dining area. The main bedroom with an ensuite facility and built in robes is located off the living area. All of these rooms have stunning views.
