Car enthusiasts and trades people will be attracted to the abundance of car parking and sheds. There is a brand new garage that could be accessed through the triple length secure carport. A rare find indeed!

A great flow for entertaining through the huge open plan living and dining room to the spectacular kitchen and second meals area. The kitchen has been recently refurbished and features top quality appliances with ample storage and bench space. Opening out through the timber French doors, the home invites you to enjoy the lovely outdoor entertaining areas that overlook the huge backyard. An area you will enjoy watching the kids grow up
