The owners have recently upgraded the home and it has a stylish contemporary feel. Stunning polished timber floors. Large picture windows. Fresh light fittings. Ducted reverse cycle air conditioning. Plenty of room for car parking including a drive through access through the carport to the rear yard to perhaps a new garage for the tradie or car enthusiast.

A great way to add value to the property.

The home has a great flow for entertaining and everyday living with a large living room. The living room is saturated in natural light thanks to the huge windows and is
